

NEWS OF THE DAY CONCERNING CHICAGO

Judge Scully to make court for insane look-as little like court as possible. Says surroundings scare people.

Foreclosure of mortgage held by Field's estate on Woman's Temple expected to take place today.

Bed and board to be provided for homeless boys and young men at the Cathedral Shelter, to be opened tonight at 943 W. Washington blvd.

Short-changers obtained $10 from clerk in Gordhein's dry goods store at 3236 W. 12th st.

35,000 bushels of onions fried in a fire which destroyed a warehouse owned by E. R. Leesley, Oak Park av. and W. 22d last night.

Judge Walker thought he had lumbago. Doctor made examination and found 2 broken ribs. Judge fell on icy sidewalk.

Osteopaths to open campaign for $1,000,000 to be used in enlarging A. T. Still research institute.

Under the direction of Prof. A. A. Michaelson, a seismograph, one of the most delicate in the world, is being installed at the "U" of Chicago.

Chicago Band to give 5th annual concert at Bridewell tomorrow.

United Commercial Travelers to have Christmas party, tree and ball in Temple hall, Masonic Temple.

William Haskell, ass't sup't of construction, board of education, fined $1,000 by board for passing regular work done in Harrison technical high school.

Michael Danek, 3442 S. Hoyne av., said to have represented self as government official in St. Paul, Minn., arrested by federal authorities at home.

R. L. Fitzgerald, engineer of Madison, Wis., family connected with Wis. railway commission, named village manager of Winnetka. To take duties of old administration.

Harry Tueber, 91, 5918 S. Morgan, robbed of $180 by 3 youths who came to borrow money.

Capt. Evans, finger print expert of bureau of identification, says name of man shot in Mrs. Curtin's saloon, Adams and S. Sangamon, is James Foster, a burglar.

Council finance committee discussing 2 more bond issues; $1,000,000 for bathing beaches, playgrounds and small parks and $750,000 for garbage disposal station.

37 years ago Mrs. Carrie Campbell placed the daughter of her second husband in a home. Recently she married again. Now searching for 39-year-old daughter.

James Christensen, found unconscious in basement of Ohio building on Sunday night, died in hospital from fractured skull. Police think robbers attacked him.

James Lundy, retired fireman of South Chicago, bought 13 pound turkey to fatten up for Christmas dinner. Killed it and found bird has lost 2 pounds.

Chicago Garment Makers' Ass'n, convening at Grand Pacific Hotel, protest against constant changes of styles.

Mrs. Jean Van Vlissingen wants classic Greek dances in place of opera. Will start coaching girls in preparation for next season.

George Hall, 636 Madison, arrested by Dr. W. M. Burroughs, Otis building, on charge of extortion. Said Hall threatened to state publicly that Burroughs caused death of wife by illegal operation.

Chief Gleason requested by F. T. Hamshaw, Seattle, to find address of parents of Fred Young, reported dead at Nizina Glacier, Alaska.

County Assessor Sheriden presented with diamond star by 31st ward Democratic club.

Mon Ton, Chinese waiter, accused of violating Mann act. Accused of transporting negress from St. Louis to Chicago.

Mayor Harrison denied Commissioner of Public Service Ferry's